

TABLE OF CONTENTS

| | |
|-------------------------------|--------------|
| Preface | xi |
| Acknowledgments | xv |
| About the Editor | xvii |
| Contributors | xix |
| About the Contributors | xxi |
| Reviewers | xxvii |

CHAPTER 1 Thinking About Criminal Justice Policy: Process, Players, and Politics 1

Karim Ismaili

| | |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----|
| Introduction | 1 |
| What Is Public Policy? | 1 |
| Criminology and the Policy-Making Process | 2 |
| Analyzing the Policy-Making Process | 5 |
| Step 1: Thinking About the “Peculiarities” of Criminal Justice Policy | 7 |
| Step 2: Thinking About the Criminal Justice Policy Community | 8 |
| Step 3: Thinking About Networks and Relationships Within the Policy Community | 12 |
| Conclusion | 14 |
| Discussion Questions | 15 |
| References | 15 |

Part 1 Public Policy and the Criminal Justice System 19

CHAPTER 2 The Significance of Race in Contemporary Urban Policing Policy 21

Delores Jones-Brown, Kevin Moran, Erica King-Toler, and Susruta Sudula

| | |
|----------------------------------------|----|
| Introduction | 21 |
| The History of Policing Race and Place | 24 |
| The Challenge of Urban Policing | 27 |
| Is Urban Policing Policy Fair? | 28 |
| Is Urban Policing Policy Effective? | 30 |

| | |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----|
| New York City: A Case Study in Race and Urban Policing Policy | 31 |
| Legal Origins of Stop, Question, and Frisk | 34 |
| Everything Old Is New Again: Stop and Frisk in New York City | 35 |
| The Road to Floyd | 38 |
| The Floyd Trial | 39 |
| SQF and New York City's Crime Decline | 41 |
| Policing Crime or Policing Race | 43 |
| Recommendations | 48 |
| Making Multicultural Competency an Integral Part of Policing Policy and Practice | 48 |
| Prioritizing Constitutionality, Transparency, and Accountability | 50 |
| Racial Impact Analysis | 51 |
| Conclusion | 52 |
| Discussion Questions | 53 |
| References | 53 |
| Cases and Statutes Cited | 61 |

CHAPTER 3 Combative and Cooperative Law Enforcement in Post-September 11th America 63

Ben Brown

| | |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------|----|
| Introduction | 63 |
| The Modern Evolution of American Law Enforcement: A Brief Overview | 63 |
| September 11th and the Emergence of Homeland Security | 66 |
| Combative Versus Cooperative Law Enforcement | 69 |
| The Rift of September 11th: Effects of New Policies on Immigration Control | 74 |
| Conclusion | 77 |
| Discussion Questions | 84 |
| References | 84 |
| Court Cases Cited | 92 |

CHAPTER 4 Policies Promoting School–Police Partnerships 93

Nicole L. Bracy

| | |
|----------------------------------------------------|-----|
| Introduction | 93 |
| The School Resource Officer Program | 95 |
| A Federal Understanding of School Violence | 96 |
| Policies Supporting Placement of Police in Schools | 97 |
| National Education Goals | 97 |
| Safe Schools Acts | 98 |
| School Crime Reporting Laws | 99 |
| COPS in Schools (CIS) | 100 |
| Safe Schools/Healthy Students Initiative | 101 |
| Challenges and Successes in School Policing | 101 |
| Implementation Challenges | 101 |
| Effects on School Crime | 102 |
| Effects on Schools and Students | 102 |

| | |
|----------------------|-----|
| Conclusion | 105 |
| Discussion Questions | 106 |
| References | 106 |
| Court Cases Cited | 109 |

CHAPTER 5 Procedural Fairness, Criminal Justice Policy, and the Courts 111

David B. Rottman

| | |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| Introduction | 111 |
| Domestic Violence | 113 |
| Drunk Drivers | 114 |
| How Court Policy Is Made | 117 |
| A Balance Sheet: What Did Traditional Policy-Making Accomplish? | 118 |
| Procedural Fairness in Practice: Policies and Practices | 119 |
| Policies for Individual Trial Judges and Court Staff | 119 |
| Policies for Entire Courts | 121 |
| Policies for Designing New Court Forums | 123 |
| Procedural Fairness and Statewide Court Policy-Making | 125 |
| The Public and Procedural Fairness | 127 |
| Public Input | 127 |
| The Court's Two Publics | 128 |
| Conclusion | 129 |
| Discussion Questions | 130 |
| Endnotes | 130 |
| References | 131 |
| Court Cases Cited | 133 |

CHAPTER 6 Criminal Justice Policy and Problem-Solving Courts 135

Susan T. Krumholz

| | |
|--------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| Introduction | 135 |
| Background of Problem-Solving Courts | 136 |
| Drug Courts | 138 |
| Background | 138 |
| Research on Drug Courts | 140 |
| Domestic Violence Courts | 143 |
| Background | 143 |
| Domestic Violence as a Coordinated Community Response | 146 |
| Discussion of the Policy Questions | 147 |
| Systemic: Do Problem-Solving Courts Reduce Costs? | 147 |
| Societal: Can Courts Solve Problems? | 147 |
| Jurisdiction | 148 |
| Adversarialism and Due Process | 148 |
| Provision of Services | 149 |
| Best Practice | 149 |
| Conclusion | 150 |
| Discussion Questions | 150 |
| References | 150 |

CHAPTER 7 U.S. Corrections Policy Since the 1970s 153*Steven E. Barkan*

| | |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| Introduction | 153 |
| The Incarceration Boom | 154 |
| Why Did the Incarceration Boom Occur? | 157 |
| A Rise in the Crime Rate? | 157 |
| A Rise in Public Concern and Fear About Crime? | 158 |
| Public Officials, the News Media, and the Incarceration Boom | 160 |
| Mass Incarceration and the Crime Rate | 161 |
| Deterrence | 161 |
| Incapacitation | 163 |
| Research on Incarceration and Crime Rates | 164 |
| Collateral Consequences of the Incarceration Boom | 166 |
| The Huge Cost of Incarceration | 166 |
| Effects on Families and Communities | 167 |
| Prison Living Conditions | 168 |
| Racial Inequality | 168 |
| Conclusion | 170 |
| Discussion Questions | 170 |
| References | 171 |

CHAPTER 8 Reentry as a Process Rather Than a Moment 175*Sema A. Taheri and Natasha A. Frost*

| | |
|------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| Introduction | 175 |
| The Context for Reentry | 177 |
| The Challenge of Prisoner Reentry | 179 |
| Shifting Release Mechanisms | 179 |
| The Changing Nature of Post-Release Supervision | 180 |
| Legislative Barriers to Successful Reintegration | 182 |
| Policies That Inhibit Reentry | 183 |
| Policies Limiting Access to Education | 184 |
| Policies Restricting Access to Employment | 185 |
| Policies Restricting Access to Public Housing | 186 |
| Policies Limiting Eligibility for Public Assistance | 189 |
| Policies Affecting Child Custody | 190 |
| The Future of Reentry Policy | 191 |
| Conclusion | 193 |
| Discussion Questions | 194 |
| References | 194 |
| Court Cases Cited | 198 |

CHAPTER 9 The U.S. Juvenile Justice Policy Landscape 199*Janeen Buck Willison, Daniel P. Mears, and Jeffrey A. Butts*

| | |
|-----------------------------------------------------|-----|
| Introduction | 200 |
| Juvenile Justice in the United States: Then and Now | 201 |
| Reform and Innovation in the 1900s | 204 |
| Analysis of Juvenile Justice Legislation | 206 |
| Juvenile Court Jurisdiction | 207 |
| Transfer, Sentencing, and Penalties | 209 |
| Confidentiality and Juvenile Records | 211 |
| Treatment and Rehabilitation | 212 |
| Is Juvenile Justice Punitive or Rehabilitative? | 214 |
| Punitive Indicators | 215 |
| Punitive Scores | 217 |
| Progressive Indicators | 218 |
| Progressive Scores | 219 |
| Practitioner Perspectives | 222 |
| Effective Policies and Practices | 222 |
| Practitioner Recommendations | 224 |
| Conclusion | 224 |
| Discussion Questions | 226 |
| References | 226 |
| Court Cases Cited | 230 |

Part 2 Crime Policy Intersections 231

CHAPTER 10 Homeland Security Policy and Criminal Justice Following 9/11 233*Jeff Gruenewald and Brent L. Smith*

| | |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| Introduction | 233 |
| Defining Homeland Security | 235 |
| Reorganizing Homeland Security | 237 |
| The Department of Homeland Security (DHS) | 238 |
| Aviation Security | 239 |
| Border Security | 242 |
| The USA PATRIOT Act | 243 |
| Policing Terrorism | 246 |
| Attorney General Guidelines and the FBI | 246 |
| Joint Terrorism Task Forces (JTTFs) | 247 |
| Homeland Security and Local Law Enforcement | 248 |
| Intelligence-Led Policing (ILP) and Fusion Centers (FCs) | 249 |
| Fusion Centers (FCs) | 249 |

Prosecuting and Punishing Terrorists 250
 The Impact of 9/11 on Federal Prosecutors 250
 Punishing Terrorists After 9/11 251
Conclusion 253
Discussion Questions 254
References 255

CHAPTER 11 Through the Looking Glass: Exploring the Relationship Between Contemporary
Immigration and Crime Control Policies 259

Dana Greene

Introduction 259
U.S. Immigration Policy: Setting the Stage 260
Key Historic Benchmarks 262
Today's Immigration Landscape: Criminal Justice Redux 267
Does It Work? The Chimera of National Security 272
Consequences of a Crime Control Model 274
Conclusion 277
Discussion Questions 277
References 278

CHAPTER 12 Technology and Criminal Justice Policy 281

Stephen Gies, Phelan A. Wyrick, and Eoin Healy

Introduction 281
 A Brief History of Technology 282
 Defining Technology 283
 Differentiating Hard from Soft Technology 284
 The Emergence of Technology Within the Criminal Justice System 284
 *Forging a Bond Between Technology and the Criminal
 Justice System* 285
 The Rise of the National Institute of Justice 287
 The Current State of Criminal Justice Technology 287
Technological Change 288
 The Diffusion of New Technology in a Criminal Justice System Context 289
Technological Profiles 291
 Law Enforcement 291
 Courts 296
 Corrections 300
Conclusion 306
Discussion Questions 308
References 309
Court Cases Cited 313

CHAPTER 13 White-Collar Crime and Public Policy: Crimes of High Finance and Environmental Crime 315

David O. Friedrichs and Olivia Salama

| | |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| Introduction | 315 |
| Conventional and White-Collar Offenders—and the Control of Conventional and White-Collar Crime—Compared | 317 |
| White-Collar Crime as a Focus of Public Policy | 318 |
| The Perceived Seriousness of White-Collar Crime | 320 |
| The Harms Caused by White-Collar Crime: Why It Merits More Public Policy Attention | 321 |
| Finance Crime and Public Policy | 322 |
| The Enron Case | 322 |
| The Sarbanes-Oxley Act as a Public Policy Response to Enron and Backlash Against It | 323 |
| The Worst Economic Crisis Since the Great Depression and White-Collar Crime | 324 |
| The Dodd-Frank Act in Response to the Financial Crisis of 2008 | 327 |
| “Neither Admit nor Deny” Settlements | 328 |
| Environmental Crime: The Crimes of Major Corporations | 329 |
| The BP Deepwater Horizon Drilling Rig Explosion | 330 |
| Public Policy and Environmental Crime | 332 |
| Conclusion | 333 |
| Discussion Questions | 333 |
| References | 334 |

CHAPTER 14 Criminal Justice Policy and Transnational Crime: The Case of Anti-human Trafficking Policy 337

Barbara Ann Stolz

| | |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| Introduction | 337 |
| The Framework | 339 |
| Stages of the Criminal Justice Policy-Making Process | 339 |
| Methods | 341 |
| U.S. Anti-Human Trafficking Legislation | 342 |
| Chronology of U.S. Anti-Human Trafficking Legislation | 342 |
| Participants: Interest Groups | 346 |
| Bureaucrats as Participants | 347 |
| Analysis: Stages in the Criminal Justice Policy-Making Process—The Case of Human Trafficking | 349 |
| Criminal Law Provisions | 350 |
| Victim Assistance Programs | 353 |
| State and Local Law Enforcement Task Forces | 354 |
| Conclusion | 355 |
| Discussion Questions | 357 |
| References | 358 |
| Statutes Cited | 361 |
| Court Cases Cited | 361 |

CHAPTER 15 When Is Crime a Public Health Problem? 363*Gregory J. DeLone and Miriam A. DeLone*

Introduction 363

When Is Crime a Public Health Problem? 364

Historic Convergence of Theory and Policy 364Contemporary Convergence of Theory and Policy 365

Integration of Two Intellectual Traditions 366

Conceptual Overlap of Two Disciplines 368

Crime Prevention Through Public Health: Examples 372

Proven Strategies 374Promising Strategies 375

Conclusion 376

Potential for Growth in Criminology: Advantages and Disadvantages 376

Discussion Questions 378

References 379

Index 381